Old Business:

- July 4th Party – The July 4th party will be from 11-2. Alison Garcia is going to get with Steve Phillips from Publix about donations. Space Walk costs $300 for water slide, sno-cone machine & cooler. Total cost of party not to exceed $1500 depending on the donations from Publix. We still need volunteers.
- Pool ID Badges – The Lifeguards are to start enforcing the student ID rule on Tuesday, June 24th. Lifeguards will collect badges upon entrance and return to the minor upon exiting the pool area. Kelly will get with Elite Amenities.

New Business

- Personal Trainer – Fitness Pursuits, a personal fitness company, is interested in offering group training services (Examples: Yoga, Zumba, Boot Camp) for the residents of The Woods. They would need the use of the clubhouse and will pay the association 25% of all fees collected. Fitness Pursuits carries $2 million in liability insurance. Kelly will get more information to present to the Board.
- 2009 Budget – We talked about things to include in the 2009 Budget. Alison is going to get with David Czerw about the budget. It will be ready at the board meeting.
- Parents' Night Out – Elite Amenities is interested in offering a monthly parents' night out at the clubhouse. Kelly will get with Angie w/Elite Amenities for further information.
- Pool/lifeguard – We discussed having a back-up plan should the occasion arise again where no lifeguard has shown up such as calling an authorized person to open the pool for “swim at own risk.”

The meeting was adjourned at 5:30 p.m.
